

Dear FCC,

There should be NO changes to the current rule. It will allow yet more monopolization of media ownership by private interests which already have shown what their goals are: complete domination of our government and economy, in order to further their greedy agendas.

Sincerely,
Eileen Page